Re: Charles Benninghoff v. Superior Court ,
Real Party of interest: The California Bar
Appellate Number: GO35923
Supreme Court Number S141459

Dear Chief Justice George and Honorable Associates Justices:

I'm writing this letter asking you (the Supreme Court) to accept review of Mr. Benninghoff's plea for help.

I Steve Brennan a General Contractor for 30 years have seen and know Charles Benninghoff to be an honest and fair man who abides strictly to the law.

It is my understanding and belief that Mr. Benninghoff was allowed per (Legislative Counsel Opinion # 18108) to represent people to California agencies and did so only after receiving #18108 that states so. The written Law should be the Law and not anything else.

The Law should not be prejudice against the Common Man.

Charles Benninghoff, a resigned attorney and now a common man who should be and I hope and believe is legally allowed to help his fellow man, as long as he keeps within the written law (as he did for me).

I know this because the California State Contractors License Board accused me of poor workmanship and a number of falsehoods stating I would owe back over $18,000.00 dollars. That's over half the total contract cost. They also stated on the internet (for three years) pending disciplinary action. That statement alone cost me thousands of dollars. Mr. Benninghoff represented me on this case for five full days of hearings. During the preparation period I asked Mr. Benninghoff many times for advice, each time he told me he could not give me legal advice and I would have to put my defense facts together myself and that is what he could use to represent me.

The accusations were dismissed without imposition of discipline and the complainant's request for cost was denied. This sort of thing has got to stop.

I'm also writing a letter to the Governor and my Congressman.

Thank God for people like Charles Benninghoff.

This issue is very important to me and all the people.

The Laws must abide to the constitution as did Charles Benninghoff.

I believe Charles Benninghoff is being falsely accused.

I beg that you please accept review of Charles Benninghoff's plea for help.

I hope that your decision be fair and for all the people.

Sincerely

Steven P. Brennan
