Re: Charles Benninghoff v. Superior Court,
Real Party in Interest: The California Bar.

Appellate Number: G035923
Supreme Court Number: S141459

Dear Chief Justice George and Honorable Associates Justices.

This letter is being submitted with the urgent request, to respectfully ask the Supreme Court to accept review of Mr. Benninghoff's plea for help.

My interest in this case is that, I, as a citizen, sincerely hope that Your Honors will make a responsible choice and practice justice in Mr. Benninghoff's case and not create a judicial error after the fact.

I was told, and it is presumed, that Mr. Benninghoff was representing people before California agencies after having received Legislative Counsel Opinion #18108 that specifically stated he could do so.

The writing of law rests with Legislature, not the courts. Therefore, if Mr. Benninghoff is not to be allowed to do agency work as a resigned attorney, and as the Legislative Counsel so wrote, then it is up to the Legislature to write the laws, accordingly.

This issue is of great public interest, because all our lives and livelihoods are involved in one way or another. If the courts rewrite the laws, then our State Constitution is moot and we become a state of men and not of law, instead, a State Constitution for all men.

Respectfully Yours,

INGRID LOFSTROM-SHAW
