Re: Charles Benninghoff v. Superior Court ,
Real Party In Interest: The California Bar

Appellate Number: G035923
Supreme Court Number: S141459

Dear Chief Justice George and Honorable Associates Justices:

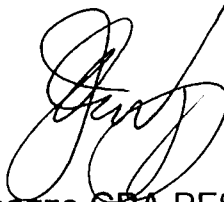

I am writing you this letter to urge the Supreme Court to accept review of Mr. Benninghoff's plea.

My interest in this case is that Mr. Benninghoff represented me in 2005 before the California State Board of Accountancy. His representation was extremely professional. Prior to representing me he explained how he received Legislative Counsel Opinion #18108 that specifically stated he could do so. I have been a practicing CPA in the State of California for the past forty-five (45) years. I am hoping that Your Honors will carryout justice in Mr. Benninghoff's case

The writing of law rests with the Legislature, not the courts. If Mr. Benninghoff is not to be allowed to do agency work as a resigned attorney, and as the Legislative Counsel so wrote, then it is up to the Legislature to write the laws accordingly.

This issue is of great public interest, because of our State Constitution and its separation of the judicial from the legislative and executive branches of government.

Sincerely,

J. Ben Vernazza CPA PFS CrFA TEP(U.K.)
