

To Whom it may concern,

It has come to my attention that Charles Benninghoff is being charged for a crime concerning his handling of Administrative Law cases. I'm a former client of his and would like to express his handling of my case.

He was very forthcoming about his history. He told me he had been charged and convicted of a crime. As a result of this, he resigned his license to practice law as an attorney but, he could still handle administrative cases. He was very professional and did a great job for me. I had no idea what I was in for. Without his help, I would have lost everything.

From what I understand of the current case against him, he was given the okay to handle administrative cases by the Legislative Counsel. Now the courts are saying that was invalid. I've always thought that laws were written by the legislature, not the court system.

My concerns are: one; Mr. Benninghoff is being wrongfully charged and two; the court system is taking on the task of rewriting the laws.

As a lifetime citizen of this beautiful state, it more than concerns me, it scares me. We must stay true to our State Constitution.

Sincerely,
Kathleen J. Wood
