Re: Charles Benninghoff v. Superior Court ,
Real Party In Interest: The California Bar

Appellate Number: G035923
Supreme Court Number: S141459

Dear Chief Justice George and Honorable Associates Justices:

A great injustice is about to be perpetrated upon a citizen of California, and only the members of the California Supreme Court have the power to stop that from happening.

Mr. Charles Benninghoff not only diligently followed the letter of the law as written, but also followed an official written opinion of the Legislative Counsel (#18108) advising him and all members of the State Legislature that Mr. Benninghoff's actions were well within the law.

The State Bar disagrees with the Legislative Counsel. I would point out that it is the prerogative of the State Legislature, and it's official Counsel, to write and interpret laws. That power does not rest with the State Bar, no matter how much they may wish it so.

Mr. Benninghoff finds himself caught in the cross-fire between two state agencies with differing interpretations of the law. He is being severely punished for finding himself in that position, and that is an enormous miscarriage of justice.

It is my fervent hope that the Justice will accept Mr. Benninghoff's case, and see that justice is done.

Sincerely yours,

William E. Saracino
