Re: Charles Benninghoff v. Superior Court ,
Real Party In Interest: The California Bar

Appellate Number: G035923
Supreme Court Number: S141459

Dear Chief Justice George and Honorable Associates Justices:

I am writing this letter in support of Mr. Benninghoff and to beseech the Supreme Court to accept review of his plea for help.

As a citizen, I am concerned and sincerely hope that Your Honors will do justice in Mr. Benninghoff's case and not create a judicial crime after the fact.

I have been kept informed, and do believe, that Mr. Benninghoff was representing people before California agencies after having received Legislative Counsel Opinion #18108 that specifically stated he could do so.

The courts do not write the laws; that is the function of the Legislature. As a resigned attorney, if Mr. Benninghoff is not to be allowed to do agency work as the Legislative Counsel so wrote, then the Legislature needs to change the laws.

If the courts can rewrite law, the freedoms of the general public are at stake. Our State Constitution should not be disregarded in this or any other constitutional issue by allowing the courts to govern and create law. The purpose of the legal system, including the courts, is to interpret the laws, not make laws.

Sincerely,

Diana Storti
