Re: Charles Benninghoff v. Superior Court,
Real Party in Interest: The California Bar

Appellate Number           G035923
Supreme Court Number    S141459

Dear Chief Justice George and Honorable Associate Justices:

I'm writing this letter to respectively urge the Supreme Court to accept review of Mr. Benninghoff's request for help.

I became interested in this case after reading an article in the 'California Political Review', dated March 21, 2006, authored by Tim Bolen, and titled "The State vs. an advocate for the little guy"

I firmly believe That Mr. Benninghoff was within his legal rights to represent individuals before California agencies after receiving Legislative Counsel Opinion #18108 that specifically stated that he could do so.

I am deeply disturbed by the fact that the courts are continually legislating from the bench which is in direct contradiction to the United States Constitution as well as the California State Constitution.

This issue is of great importance and public interest not only on a state level but nationally as well. The courts are overstepping their bounds to continually rewriting law. Leave that to the Legislature.

Sincerely,
